EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE

Look at tongue! If feverish, bilious, constipated. take no chances.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child.

See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of soid, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't est, sleep or act naturally, has stomacheshe, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Pigs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothesse can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggiet for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Advt.

A TRUE NEW YORKER IS THE GRAND MARSHAL.

Miss Ethel Stebbins, grand marshal of the parade, is a member of an old New York family. Her mother's father was Henry F. Vail, President of the Bank of Commerce until his death in 1851. Mincie C. Vail, his daughter, was a famous belie, one of the "toasts" of old New York. She married Henry G. Stebbins, twice President of the Stock Exchange and Member of Congress during the Civil War. He was President of the Park Commission when Central Park was first laid out, Chairman of the Committee of Seventy at the time of the Tweed Ring, and President of the Academy of Music in the early days of grand opera. Miss Stebbins is a graduate of Cornell and President of its Alumnae Association.

No Suffragist can be found who will admit that she is the least bit discouraged because the Suffrage amendment was voted down in New Jersey. Mrs. Kate Devereux Blake, President of the Teachers' Branch of the Empire State Campaign Committee, declared to-day.
